Discussion Questions

- In this video, the Franciscan priest explained that his eyes were first opened to his conversion when he heard Christ say to Saint Matthew, “Come and follow me.” After hearing this invitation, he struggled with giving up his own plans for his life and following God’s plan instead. What are your plans for your life? What would be difficult about giving up these plans if God had something different in store for you?
- This video describes our spiritual life as a pilgrimage. We are all on a journey toward the ultimate goal: eternal life with God. According to the video, what did God give us to help us and ensure we will never be alone on this journey?
- In this chapter, we read that the Church teaches that all the baptized are called to holiness. This call to holiness includes the laity and those ordained through Holy Orders or called to religious life. How does knowing you are an integral part of the community in the Church inspire you to persevere in your journey to holiness?
