Chapter 10 Reflection Questions

Name: _____

Focus 1: Jesus perfectly fulfilled the prophecies and the laws given by God to Moses. “For the law was given through Moses; grace and truth came through Jesus Christ” (John 1:17). According to this Scripture verse, why weren’t the people of the Old Testament able to fully follow God’s laws given to them by Moses?

Jesus came to fulfill the law; only through Jesus are we able to have the grace and truth needed to fully follow God’s laws.

Focus 2: The Did You Know states, “In the Creed, we profess that Jesus is ‘consubstantial’ with the Father. This means that He is one in being, or of the same substance, as the Father. We profess that Jesus is fully God just as the Father is fully God.” When you say the Nicene Creed at Mass, what are you saying about Jesus when you say He is consubstantial with the Father?

Jesus is fully God just as the Father is fully God.

Focus 3: Through grace, we are made holy. In other words, we cannot become holy on our own without God’s grace. Think of one of the commandments that you always struggle with. Write a prayer asking God to give you the grace to lift you up and to do His will.

Answers may vary.

Focus 4: When we are filled with God’s grace, we become temples of the Holy Spirit. As a temple of the Holy Spirit, how should you treat your body with dignity?

Answers may include to care for my body, to present myself respectfully with modest clothing, and to have a dignified posture.
