

Journey Board Game

Materials:

- Pattern is on the catechist portal; print on card stock, one set per 5 to 6 students
- If desired, patterns for each student may also be printed
- Scissors
- Glue sticks
- Player pieces (example: pieces from a Sorry game or other small items); one color for each student in the group
- Dice; one for each group

Make a classroom gameboard or have each student make his own gameboard to take home; but when the game is played in class, small groups of five to six students may play. Each group will use one gameboard.

Have the students cut out their virtue/vice cards. Next, have them glue the two pathway pieces together to form one long board. Divide the class into groups of five to six, and have each group pick one gameboard and set of cards to play with. Pass out one player piece to each student (make sure each student within a group has a different color).

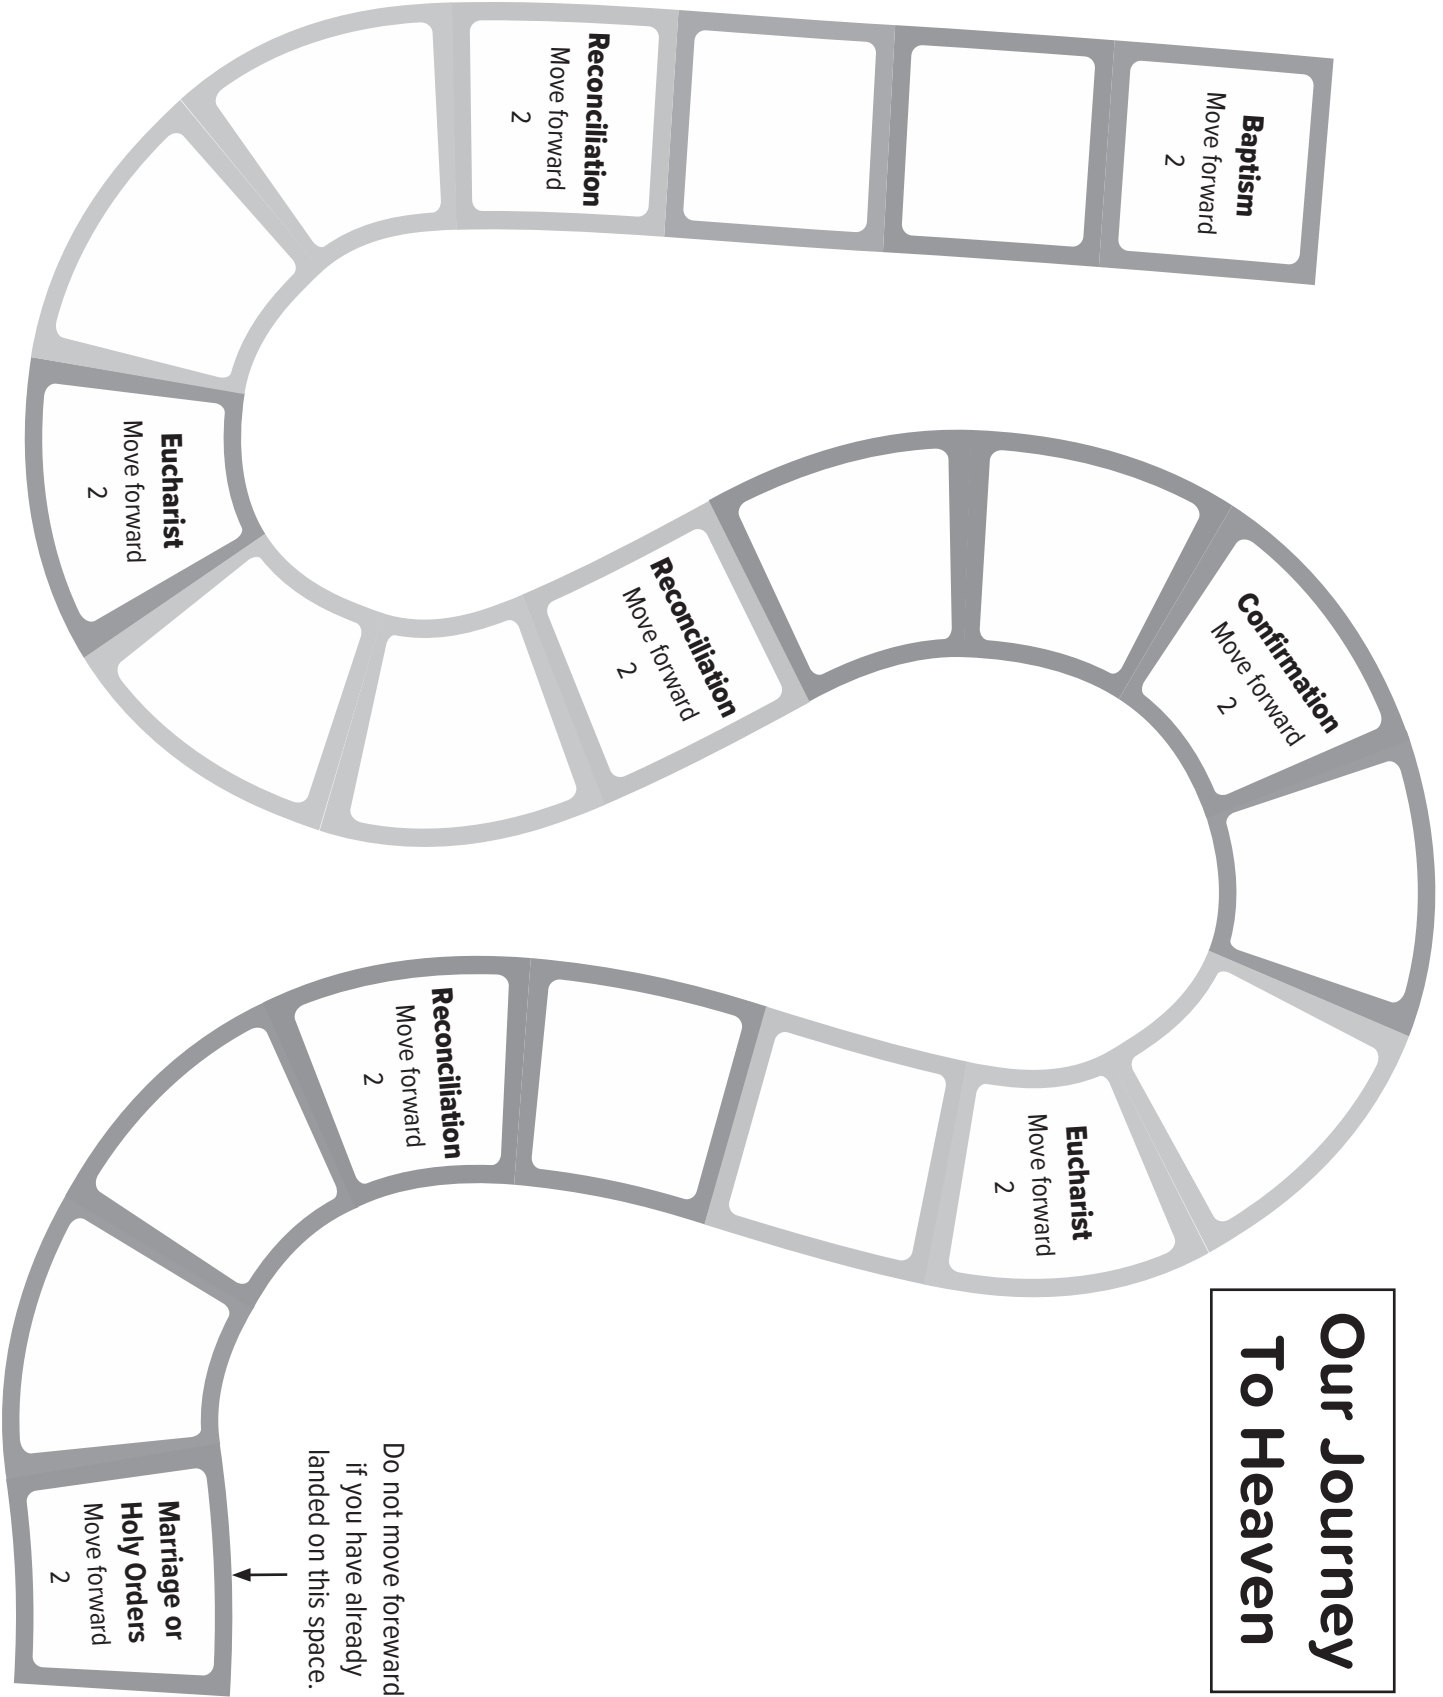

The object of the game is to have one's piece reach Heaven.

Have each group place its virtue/vice cards face down in the place indicated. Have students take turns playing in alphabetical order. Have all players start on "Baptism" and then move forward three spaces.

The first player to go will pick a card and do what it says. Then the next two players will do the same. If a player lands on a sacrament space, follow the rules of that space. If a "Mortal Sin" card is picked, that player must move back to the closest Reconciliation space and then follow the directions of that space. Once the Virtue/Vice cards are used up, shuffle them before using them again.

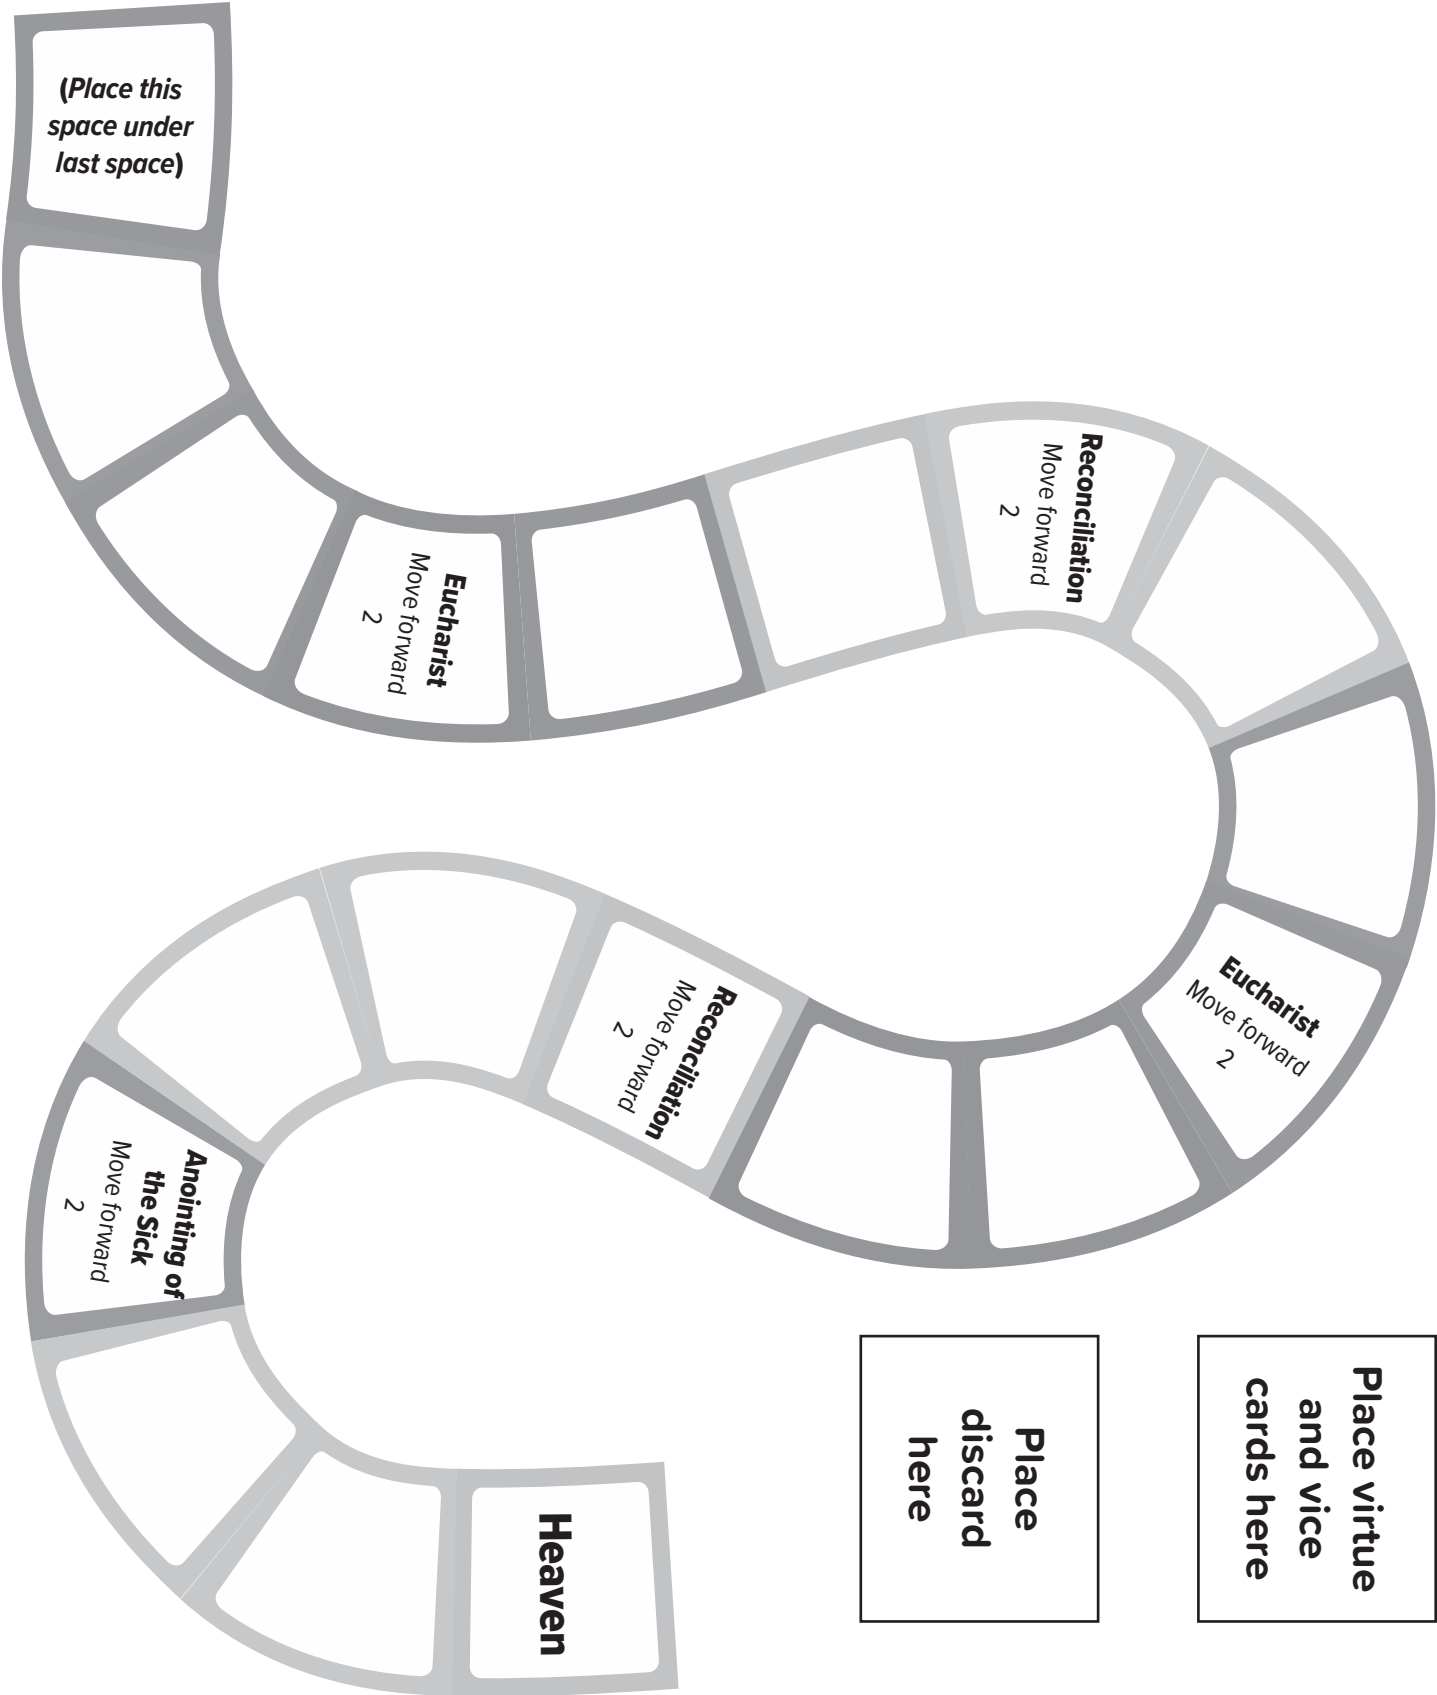

Repeat this until each player reaches Heaven!
