Chapter 12 Reflection Questions

Name: _____

Lesson 1: Name a time when you obeyed God and things turned out better than you had expected.

Lesson 2: Just as Jesus transformed water into wine, He transforms a husband and wife’s love. He gives them the sacramental graces to live as husband and wife as they grow in love and holiness. He strengthens the couple to remain faithful and to raise a holy family. Therefore, why is it very important that, as Catholics, we are married in the Catholic Church?

Lesson 3: (1) Describe one way that Christ loves the Church. (2) How is that mirrored in the love between a husband and a wife?

Lesson 4: Mutual goodwill is the foundation of every true friendship. You have goodwill when you will the good of the other. You wish the other person well, and, when appropriate, you make choices to further her good. Without giving names, give an example of someone willing the good of another, and give an example of someone not willing the good of another.
