

Unit 1 Test

Name: _____

Part 1: Circle the best answer.

- The act of giving adoration and reverence is called _____.
a. worship b. obedience c. religion
- What is our supernatural end?
a. communion with God in Heaven b. happiness on earth c. human moral virtues
- _____ means “the work on behalf of the people.” Through this, we worship God and participate in His work of salvation.
a. Piety b. Liturgy c. Old Law
- Which three virtues are all most closely related to the cardinal virtue of justice?
a. kindness, modesty,
and diligence b. humility, piety,
and truthfulness c. religion, obedience,
and piety
- Sacred signs such as holy water, rosaries, crucifixes, and blessings are _____.
a. sacraments b. sacramentals c. liturgies

Part 2: Write “T” if the statement is completely true. Write “F” if it is even partly false.

- T 1. At Creation, God worked by creating, ordering, and adorning.
- F 2. Something's nature determines how it will act but not what it is.
- T 3. God created us in His image so that we can participate in His work.
- F 4. In fulfilling the Old Law, Jesus shows us that worship is about directing our minds and bodies to God, but not our hearts.
- F 5. Religion cannot be defined as a virtue that disposes us to worship.

Bonus: Answer the following question.

Which two virtues, related to justice, enable us to give what is due to our country and families?

piety and obedience

Unit 1 Reflection Questions

Name: _____

God works throughout salvation history to save mankind. His works reveal His infinite goodness. Out of love and justice, we respond to God’s goodness through worship. Jesus came to give us the grace and virtues we need for true worship. Choose one virtue you need to have strengthened in you so that you can adequately offer to God the worship that is truly due to Him.

Answers may vary.

Explain how this virtue can help you truly worship God in response to His loving goodness.

With faith, we can believe in God and share His truth with others. With hope, we can trust that God will give us the ability to love Him and to live according to His truth. With charity, we can respond to God’s goodness by loving Him above all things and loving others because of Him.
