

Chapter 4 Test: Fortitude to Live the Truth

Name: _____

Part 1: Circle the best answer.

1. Which person led the Israelites into the Promised Land?
a. Abraham b. David c. Joshua
2. Which cardinal virtue strengthens us to overcome fear and to pursue what is good even if it is difficult?
a. fortitude b. justice c. temperance
3. Which virtue enables us to endure hardships calmly and peacefully?
a. patience b. perseverance c. magnanimity
4. Which virtue enables us to act for what is good despite lasting hardships?
a. patience b. perseverance c. magnanimity
5. Which virtue enables us to do great and noble things for God and others with confidence?
a. patience b. perseverance c. magnanimity
6. “Magnanimity” means “to have a great _____.”
a. soul b. physical strength c. personality
7. What kind of virtue is fortitude?
a. cardinal b. theological c. revealed

Part 2: Write “T” if the statement is completely true. Write “F” if it is even partly false.

- _____ 1. A magnanimous person is confident in his gifts and helps others.
- _____ 2. Magnanimity is the same as pride.
- _____ 3. Perseverance, patience, and magnanimity are parts of the virtue of fortitude.

Chapter 4 Reflection Questions

Name: _____

Lesson 1: Fortitude is the cardinal moral virtue that strengthens us to overcome fear and to pursue what is good, even if it is difficult. A disciple of Christ follows Jesus and is a witness for Jesus by spreading the Good News. Why do you need fortitude to become a disciple of Christ?

Lesson 2: Perseverance is the virtue that enables us to act for what is good despite lasting hardships. A disciple of Christ follows Jesus and is a witness for Jesus by spreading the Good News. Why do you need perseverance to become a disciple of Christ?

Lesson 3: Patience is the virtue that enables us to endure hardships calmly and peacefully. A disciple of Christ follows Jesus and is a witness for Jesus by spreading the Good News. Why do you need patience to become a disciple of Christ?

Lesson 4: Magnanimity is the virtue by which we can confidently do great and noble things for God and others. A disciple of Christ follows Jesus and is a witness for Jesus by spreading the Good News. Why do you need magnanimity to become a disciple of Christ?
