

Chapter 11 Test: The Coming of the Holy Spirit

Name: _____

Part 1: Circle the best answer.

1. Which word means “to pour into”?
a. prudence b. infuse c. Pentecost
2. The hinge virtues of fortitude, justice, temperance, and prudence are the _____.
a. theological virtues b. basic virtues c. cardinal virtues
3. This virtue helps us control and direct our desires for created goods and pleasures.
a. justice b. temperance c. fortitude
4. This virtue helps us give what is due to God and others.
a. justice b. fortitude c. prudence
5. This virtue enables us to know how to be virtuous in a situation.
a. justice b. fortitude c. prudence
6. This virtue strengthens us to pursue the good and courageously face our fears.
a. temperance b. fortitude c. justice
7. The _____ infuses us with virtue and grace to sanctify us and make us holy.
a. Holy Spirit b. Pentecost c. prudence
8. The fiftieth day after Easter, when the Holy Spirit came upon the Apostles and the Church was made visible to the world, is called _____.
a. Passion b. Ascension c. Pentecost

Part 2: Write “T” if the statement is true. Write “F” if it is false.

- _____ 1. If our hearts are open, it will make a difference in the way that grace and virtue work in us.
- _____ 2. We are able to proclaim the Good News of Jesus like the Apostles did because we have received grace and virtue from the Holy Spirit.